Two Great IALC Schools In One Great Location.

Alpha College

Our school is located in Dublin city centre. The aim of Alpha College is to provide English language training programmes and related services of a consistently high standard, at a price which represents great value for money.

Pace Language Institute

PACE is a small family run school established in 1990. Our school is housed in two adjoining Georgian buildings on the main Dublin Road, just 18 kms from Dublin city centre. Our main selling point is that we combine our courses with golf and horse riding, a great social life and an excellent excursion programme.
