Our Quality Standards

A company where individuality and creativity exists alongside professionalism and best practice.

ESE European School of English in Malta

To ensure consistently high standards, our schools are accredited under the IALC Quality Scheme.

The inspection: We have a team of trained independent inspectors, who reviews each member at least every four years. They thoroughly inspect all areas of the language school. Where improvements are identified during the inspection process, these must be completed within a set time-frame.

The annual audit: The best language centres continuously innovate and improve themselves where improvements are deemed necessary. We measure our members' commitment to quality development through an annual online assessment: the Annual Quality Return (AQR).

Putting agencies front and centre: In a bold, innovative step, IALC will be the first school organisation to revolutionise its audit and inspection process by focusing on the satisfaction levels of agents during the inspection of an IALC school. This new inspection scheme will be called Scheme B and will officially launch at our IALC 2020 Auckland Workshop.

Best practice and shared knowhow: IALC is a supportive, collaborative association in which members share best practice and advice on running a great language school, both at our annual general meeting and via an online forum at any time of year.

If you are unable to resolve an issue: All IALC schools have a published complaints policy as part of their quality commitment. But if you are unable to resolve a complaint with an IALC member, you can contact IALC. We will investigate fairly and neutrally, so that we can recommend a resolution.

Why study English in Scotland?

GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ENGLISH

GLOBAL SCHOOL OF ENGLISH EDINBURGH

- It's very friendly. Much more friendly than London for example. People in the street, in bus queues and shops, will talk to you and help you. Almost all our students tell us that the friendliness of the Scots is one of the things they remember about their time in our country.
- It's a safe place. Again, our students all tell us that they feel secure here.
- The quality of the teaching is excellent. We have fully accredited teachers, modern classrooms, excellent IT and teaching aids, and small classes where you'll get individual attention.
- There are so many activities and events to enjoy, whether it's to see the café where Harry Potter was first written or to learn Scottish Dancing at a ceilidh, there is something for everyone.
- It's beautiful. In fact, Scotland is regularly voted the most beautiful country in the world. Whether you are studying in Glasgow or Edinburgh, you can be in stunning countryside within 30 minutes and if you want to travel to Inverness to see the Loch Ness Monster it's only a few hours in a train.
- The public transport is very reliable and cheap.
- Accommodation and living are not expensive. We have some of the best meat, fish (especially seafood), vegetables and drink in the world, and it's easy to find a full range of vegan, vegetarian, Halal and Kosher food.
- Over 98% of our students regularly tell us that studying in our schools has improved their English and they would recommend us to their friends.

There are lots of other reasons to come and study English in Scotland, but you'll have to come here to find out what they are! Not only that, but we can offer you a choice of two first-class schools, both ideally situated in their respective city centres and within a few minutes' walk of all the major bus and train stations. Whether you prefer the classical elegance of Edinburgh or the dynamic bustle of Glasgow, the message is clear. It's time to learn English in Scotland!
