

A pioneer in DELFL DALF flexible learning

Need to improve your DELFL DALF skills but don't have the time or the budget to spend 3 months in France ?

With FRENCH IN NORMANDY you can study for the DELFL DALF whenever and wherever you choose.

With FRENCH IN NORMANDY online you can get where you want to be.

Our DELFL and DALF online preparation courses focus on Levels B2 (DELFL), C1 and C2 (DALF) of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR)

- Course Content

Your course will be designed based on the results from your placement test and needs analysis. You will cover all four skills and work on exercises designed to meet the requirements of the Diplomas

Topics covered in this course include:

- Reading and Use of French

- Writing
- Listening
- Speaking

How does it work?

Step 1 Fill in the French in Normandy online registration form giving us your availabilities for your flexible learning programme and the date you wish to start

Step 2 Organise your oral test

Step 3 We will then send you your planning for Week 1 which will include:

- written expression
- reading comprehension
- listening comprehension
- a one hour practice session for the oral test with thirty minute one to one oral
- a thirty minute feedback session at the end of every week

• Is my work corrected?

Yes. Every piece of work is corrected. For the listening and reading comprehension we will send you the corrected versions with your exercise so that you can check and auto evaluate your answers.

For the oral work and for your written expression your trainer will correct in detail covering both grammatical and lexical points as well as the methodology required to pass the DELFL and DALF.

At the end of week you will have a face to face session of 30 minutes to go through your work for the week and set the following week's objectives.

• Will it be the right level?

Yes! Our personalized test will ensure that our staff send you work that is perfectly adapted to your needs and your objective.

• Does it replicate the DELFL DALF papers?

Yes, all the work we will send you replicates the requirements of the DELFL and DALF

• How will I know if I am making progress?

At French in Normandy, every DELFL DALF student has a personalised record book that is updated every day by our staff and which the student can consult at any time to check on their progress. French in Normandy uses an online file for each DELFL DALF student where our staff will record your notes for each piece of work. Your work is marked according to the rules and guidelines set by the DELFL DALF and all your trainers are trained and recognized examiners. You can see your results at any time as well as the advice and tips that our staff will give you and you can follow your progress in graphic form.

• What if I want to change my lessons?

You can change the day or time of one of your lessons as long it is more than 24 hours before the date fixed.

• What if I want to change my package to longer or shorter time online/immersion?

We have a minimum course length of 4 weeks online and 2 weeks immersion but after that, you can choose the length of stay that suits you.

• How and when can I fix my lessons?

You send your availability to our planning service every week. We then confirm the day and times. We fix the oral at the end of the week and the feedback/tutor session at the end of the week.

• When can I start? You can start every Monday!
