Dates and Details

Individual Training in General or Business English

Dates, Times and Intensity are by mutual agreement. On receipt of the application form and acceptance of the booking, our Online Courses Manager will contact the student and organise training calendar and allocate trainer according to the package booked, the level stated and the needs provided.

Open Group Courses

Courses begin on the first Monday of each month.

Levels available are: Elementary (A2), Pre-Intermediate (B1), Intermediate (B2), and Post-Intermediate (C1). The content is General or Business English. There is a maximum of 6 per group.

The format, dates, times and intensity will be organised between Accent and the participants.

All participants will be assessed during the first session to ensure compatibility.

International Professional Forums

For Advanced students only (C1/C2). This is a new course and it is envisaged that courses will begin in the first week of every month. Initial focus areas are: Business: Strategy and Operations, Finance, Law, Medicine, Engineering. There is a separate application form for International Professional Forums, where participants are able to select their area of interest and give details of their availability. Accent will contact all members of the forum and organise a training calendar and intensity by mutual agreement.

VIP Personal Coaching

This is very specialised and very personalised. Previous clients have included famous captains of industry, senior politicians, presidents and CEOs. Coaching can cover Language, Communication Skills, Business Skills, Management Skills, International Working, Cultural Awareness or just a single, vital event. The minimum period is one day and, as this is so personal, applicants for this programme should contact Mark Waistell, Senior Partner, personally, by email on mark@accent-international.co.uk
